Saw this novel and bought it to see where it would take me. A bit predictable but fun none the less. I was stationed in Bremerton so I was familiar with the area. I have already purchased and read the sequel. My point here is Chris Kennedy has developed a world and characters that make you want to read just to see what happens next. Pure escapism with some great insights into the military lifestyle and the usual bitches and gripes about senior officers and stupid policies designed to make everyone else's life and job miserable. As a retired enlisted person, this type of story appeals to me on so many different levels but above all, this is a damn good story to read.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Literary CrackBy ian GodYou'll be hooked from beginning to end, it's like crack in book form. While a little rough around the edges, you won't care because the story is that engrossing. This is clearly an early work of author Chris Kennedy, because I've seen his Asbaran Solutions and it's written much better. Either way, this is a win for us and should be a movie!!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Wow,what a thrilling rideBy The E TravellerThis book is like a roller coaster as it dips and turns and goes up and downFull of action and full of great likeable characters and character developmentThere are several funny moments as well

The Chinese have captured Seattle! In 1949, the government of the Republic of China fled to the island of Taiwan. For nearly 70 years, mainland China wanted to take the island back and unite the nation under one flag, the Communist flag. Their desire was thwarted by US support for Taiwan, until the Chinese conceived and executed the perfect plan to keep the US out of the war for Taiwan, an invasion of Seattle! Yesterday, China captured the cities of Seattle and Tacoma, Washington, in a Pearl Harbor-like surprise attack. The Chinese also captured six American nuclear warheads and are not afraid to use them on American soil, if necessary, to keep the United States out of the war in the Pacific. Without US aid, the fall of Taiwan seems imminent, and now even Seattle seems lost to the Chinese. America's hopes are riding on a shot-down F-18 pilot, a retired Navy SEAL, and a platoon of Army Rangers. If that's all America has going for it, all hope seems lost!
